NGAITAHU MAORI TRUST BOARD

PLEASE NOTE

1. On the 20th October 1966, Parliament enacted the Maori Purposes Act 1966, Section 16 of which repealed subsections 7, 8, 9 and 10 of Section 6 of the Maori Trust Boards Act 1955, and substituted there for the following subsections:

- “(7) The beneficiaries of the Board are hereby declared to be the descendants of-
 - (a) The persons, being members of the Ngaitahu tribe living in the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight whose names are set out in a list appearing at pages 92 to 131 (both inclusive) of the book containing the minutes of the proceedings and findings of a committee (commonly known as the Ngaitahu Census Committee) appointed in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, the book being that lodged in the office of the Registrar of the Maori Land Court at Christchurch and marked ‘Ngaitahu Census Committee Minutes 1929’:
 - (b) Any other persons who may, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (9) of this section, be determined to be members of the Ngaitahu tribe living in the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight.
- "(8) Where any question arises as to whether or not a person is a descendant of any of the persons who are referred to in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (7) of this section the Board shall have authority to determine that question, and the Board's determination shall be final and conclusive.
- "(9) Any person who is not a beneficiary of the Board by virtue of his being a descendant of any of the persons mentioned in subparagraph (a) of subsection (7) of this section and who claims to be a descendant of a member of the Ngaitahu tribe who was alive in the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight may within two years commencing with the first day of January, nineteen hundred and sixty-seven, apply to the Board to have the name of that member added to the list, The Board shall consider any such application with all convenient speed, and shall notify the applicant of its decision and, if the Board rejects the application, the person making the application may, within six months after the date upon which he is notified of the Board's decision, apply to the Court to hear and determine the question. Any determination by the Court shall be final and conclusive."

2. As a result of the amending legislation, the Board has published this booklet, which reproduces the list of persons referred to in subsection 7 (a) above; but, in these notes, briefly records the history of events leading up to the amending legislation and, in addition, makes further explanatory comments, which it trusts will be of assistance.

3. In July 1963, the Board published a booklet entitled "Original Beneficiaries as listed in Maori Court Order dated 12th March 1925"; and, in explanatory notes therein, drew attention inter alia to Section 6 (7) of the Maori Trust Boards Act 1955, which has been repealed as stated above but which read "The beneficiaries of the Board are hereby declared to be the persons determined by an order of the Maori Land Court dated the twelfth day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty-five, to be beneficially entitled to any relief that might be granted in respect of claims under a certain deed executed on the twelfth day of June, eighteen hundred and forty-eight, by which the chiefs of the Ngaitahu tribe surrendered to the New Zealand Company certain Maori lands in the South Island; together with the descendants of any such persons, or the successors to any such persons as determined by the Maori Land Court."

4. The 1963 booklet then listed the beneficiaries, whose names were included in the Court's 1975 Order, the basis of entitlement for inclusion in which had been, in general descent from one or more of the so called "1848 Kaumatua", i.e., those members of the Ngaitahu tribe who had been alive in 1848 and entitled to participate in any benefits arising from the sale to the New Zealand Company. The majority of them were persons, whom the 1925 Court had appointed as successors to "1848 Kaumatua", recognised by it; but the Order also included certain other beneficiaries whose rights had been admitted later by the Appellate Court.

5. Subsequent to the promulgation of the 1925 Order, it was realised that a number of "1848 Kaumatua" who were entitled to be included in the Court's list of such Kaumatua had been omitted, and various applications for additions to the list were lodged with the Chief Judge of the Maori Land Court. These applications were referred by the Chief Judge to the Maori Land Court for enquiry and report and, at the first hearing at Kaiapoi on 28th May 1929, the Court appointed a "large and representative committee" "to go afresh through all the lists and ascertain if there were omissions, or if some members of a family were inadvertently left out".

6. That committee (commonly known as the Ngaitahu Census Committee) held sittings at Kaiapoi, Temuka, Dunedin and Invercargill and satisfied itself on two points, the first being that a number of the "1848 Kaumatua" had in fact been omitted by the Court in 1925; and the second was that the same Court had omitted various people (rightfully entitled) from lists of successors it had appointed to certain Kaumatua. The committee therefore recommended to the Court that the 1925 Order be amended by the substitution therefore of the names of the "1848 Kaumatua", on which it was based, with the addition of further "1848 Kaumatua" admitted by it in 1929. In other words, the recommendation was to the effect that the 1925 Court Order should be amended to include only those "1848 Kaumatua" whose names appear in the lists usually referred to as the 1925 and the 1929 Kaumatua lists, which are set out in the Minute Book, referred to in subsection 7 (a) of Section 6, quoted in paragraph 1 above. The Committee also recommended that it should be left to the, Court to decide succession to each Kaumatua.

7. In 1953, the Maori Land Court published the Ngaitahu Census Committee's 1929 Kaumatua list in a special notice and called on persons, claiming rights under Kaumatua in that list, to file claims with the Registrar of the Court in Wellington by August of that year. However, as the Board reported in its Annual Report, as at 31st March 1964, as far as it had been able to ascertain, no claims were received, and therefore the 1929 Kaumatua list became of no effect. Nevertheless, the Board was convinced of the inadequacy of the 1925 Court Order and this is evidenced by the following extracts from the said Annual Report:

"67 . . . These latter have served to reinforce an opinion that the Board has long had-that the Court's 1925 List is inadequate and incomplete; and they have also reinforced another opinion it has had for some time-that the 1929 Census Committee's List provides a far more complete and accurate list of Ngaitahu Kaumatua than that arrived at by the Maori Land Court in 1925-even with the names added by the Appellate Court. In the 1925 Court Order, for example, there are a number of instances of the inclusion of one member of a family and the exclusion of all other members-with identical claims; and the Board has knowledge of the inclusion in the 1925 Order of the descendants of one Kaumatua of 1848, while the descendants of his twin brother-with similar rights for inclusion-were not included by the Court.

"68. At its meeting of February last (i.e., February 1964) the Board therefore decided that it should take steps to have the 1929 list recognised and, since then, it has instructed counsel to move in this direction. Any move for amendment of the present recognised list will inevitably take time, and descendants of Kaumatua listed in the 1929 Census Committee's List must understand that the board's initiation of action aimed at the recognition of their rights does not, in fact, give them any beneficial rights in the Trust at this stage; their fate in this direction rests on the ultimate fate of the Board's move for amendment of the 1925 Order, and they therefore should not renew applications for grants merely on the basis of the fact that the Board has instructed counsel."

8. Following this the Board, on the advice of the counsel it had retained (Mr Ivor Pritchard, formerly Chief Judge of the Maori Land Court), authorised the Chairman to petition on its behalf for the amendment of the legislation; and, on 7th September 1966, the Board's Chairman and its counsel appeared before the Maori Affairs Committee in support of that petition. The Maori Affairs Committee referred the petition to Parliament with a recommendation for most favourable consideration and, as a result, amending legislation was made as reported in paragraph 1 above.

9. The list published in this booklet is a reprint of the list referred to in subsection 7 (a) of Section 6 of the Maori Trust Boards Act 1955, quoted in paragraph 1 hereof:

Column 1 has been inserted to give each of the "1848 Kaumatua" a number, which the Board would like applicants to quote, when completing the declaration and whakapapa forms mentioned in paragraphs 18 and 19 of these notes;

Column 2 gives the names of the "1848 Kaumatua" as they are listed in the book recording the "Ngaitahu Census Committee Minutes 1929"; but, in a number of cases, the Board has added in italics alternative names and, in certain instances, additional references, which appear in the text of the minutes;

Column 3, headed "List No. (i.e. Ngaitahu Files)", is also as set out in the above minute book and gives references to enable the establishment of the basis on which any "1848 Kaumatua" was admitted (see paragraph 10 below); and

Column 4 refers to various censuses taken in 1848 and 1852-3 of "Native Residents" in the South Island (see paragraph 11 below)

10. The various references in Column 3 are:

Ct.List: This indicates a numbered file prepared in connection with the 1925 Court hearing, on which file there will usually be whakapapa or other evidence in support of the claim for recognition of the "1848 Kaumatua" concerned. Where no reference, other than a number is given in this column, that number refers to one of the "Ct.Lists".

App.Ct: This indicates that the "1848 Kaumatua" concerned was included in the 1925 Court Order, following an Appellate Court decision approving his admission, and the number (or other reference) indicates the relevant Appellate Court Ngaitahu file.

New App: Where this designation is followed by a number, that number usually refers to the application number in the "Panui" of the various applications, which had been referred by the Chief Judge for enquiry and report at the hearing of the Court referred to in paragraph 5 above. Where it is followed by no number, it refers to an application, which was dealt with by the Ngaitahu Census Committee in 1929, without prior reference to the Maori Land Court. In a number of cases, the Committee added a further reference to indicate the place at which it heard evidence in support of the claim for the admission of the "1848 Kaumatua" concerned.

Comm.List: This designation refers to a limited number of applications, which were brought before the Ngaitahu Census Committee, without prior reference to the Maori Land Court, and the designation in general is equivalent to that of a new application (New App. above).

11. The references, where given, in Column 4, are to the various censuses mentioned above and indicate, for example, that "1848 Kaumatua" No. 2 in the list-Te Aika (Aperahama te Aika)-was shown as the first (i.e., 1) in the list of those resident at Ruataniwha at the census date.

12. Although the inclusion of a person's name in the 1963 booklet is prima facie evidence of that person's rights as a beneficiary, it is not absolute evidence of such rights; and the Board has knowledge of cases, where persons, who appeared in the 1925 Court's Order, were not descendants of any of the "1848 Kaumatua". As a result of the amending legislation, the list in the 1963 booklet has been superseded by the list in this booklet but, nevertheless, the Board feels that applicants for consideration under subsection 8 of Section 6 would be well advised to use both booklets to assist them in their research to establish their claim for recognition as beneficiaries in terms of subsection 7 (a) of Section 6.

13. For example, the name of Albert Hori Te Mamaru Stewart (No. 11 in the 1963 list) does not appear in the present list of "1848 Kaumatua", but it carries the same Ngaitahu file reference (18), as does the name of Ana Patiki (No. 8 in the "1848 Kaumatua" list); and this is prima facie evidence of his descent from Ana Patiki. A search of the Ngaitahu file (Ct.List 19) would in fact establish such descent and thus provide absolute evidence of his entitlement as a beneficiary in terms of subsection 7 (a); and a descendant of his would thus, in turn, be assisted in establishing his or her rights in terms of subsection 7 (a).

14. The same method of research would establish the descent of Te Ata Whakamaru (No. 68 in the 1963 list) from Timu (No. 5 in the "1848 Kaumatua" list); and the descent of Arthur Miller (No. 66 in the 1963 list) from John Miller (Tiaki Mira) (No. 147 in the "1848 Kaumatua" list).

15. The Board also feels that both booklets could be used with advantage for research purposes even by those beneficiaries, whose rights are already established and whose names are already on the Board's rolls.

16. The Board also draws attention to the following additional extracts from the Maori Trust Boards Act, 1955:

Section 35: "No beneficiary shall acquire or be deemed ever to have acquired any interest, whether vested or contingent, or legal or equitable, in the assets of the Board of which he is a beneficiary."

Section 42 (1): "Each Board shall cause to be prepared a roll containing the names and addresses of all adult beneficiaries of the Board, and shall, from time to time, make all such additions and corrections to the roll as may be necessary."

Section 43: "It shall be the responsibility of each adult beneficiary to ensure that his name is included in the roll and to supply to the Board his full postal address for the time being."

Section 45: "Each Board shall have jurisdiction to determine whether any person applying for inclusion in its roll of beneficiaries is qualified for inclusion....."

17. The Board already has on its records the names and addresses of many beneficiaries, who have established their rights for consideration; but it will not enrol on its rolls (as mentioned in Sections 42 (1), 43 and 45 quoted above) any additional person, who is unable to prove (to its satisfaction, as required by subsection 8 of Section 6) descent from one or more of the "1848 Kaumatua", or else can establish rights in terms of subsection 9.

18. Any person, who has not already established beneficial rights and who wishes to do so, may obtain a declaration and whakapapa form from the Secretary or any member of the Board. He or she should then complete the declaration and the whakapapa by reference to the list in this booklet and, after having signed the declaration before one of the approved witnesses, should forward the form to the Secretary of the Board.

19. Because of the duplication of many names among the Ngaitahu people, anyone completing a declaration and whakapapa form would be well advised to trace his or her Ngaitahu whakapapa at least one step further back than the "1848 Kaumatua" claimed. In cases of possible confusion, this will help the Board to check claims by reference to the Ngaitahu files held by the Maori Land Court in Christchurch. These files are available for search at the Maori Land Court's office on payment of the usual search fees.

20. The Board must point out, however, that it cannot undertake extensive research to establish the claims of any applicants; the onus of proof must in all cases rest where it properly belongs on the applicants themselves.

THE NGAI TAHU CLAIM: Census of persons alive in 1848

The following are the names of the 1848 Kaumatua admitted in 1925:
