Rooms that are connected to the Wharenui will be available for changing. Men’s and Women’s washrooms are located next to the Wharenui.

Please let the Runanga office know well in advance if a member of your group is unable to sleep on the floor on a mattress.

WHAT TO BRING?

1. Sleeping bag/duvet
2. Own pillow (if you wish)
3. Towels
4. Personal toiletries
5. Slippers (can be worn inside the wharenui)
6. Earplugs (for those light sleepers)
Pōwhiri Kawa

1. Upon arriving at Takahanga Marae on Takahanga Terrace, you will find yourself at the rear of the Marae. To go to the front of the Marae for Pōwhiri, please drive down the driveway, which is located on the left-hand side of the Marae grounds (there is a large hedge on your left) where there is a sign that says “Manuhiri” (Visitors). The visitors’ car park is located at the end of the driveway so that you will end up at the front of the Marae. Pōwhiri commence from the front of the Marae.

2. Once the visitors have gathered, it is at this point that manuhiri can decide who is going to whaikorero (make a speech) in response to the welcome speeches that will be given by Tangata Whenua. The number of Kaikorero (speakers) is up to the manuhiri to decide. There can be more than one, usually speeches are performed in Te Reo Māori, but given that some people cannot speak Te Reo, English is acceptable.

3. When everyone is ready, please proceed to Hine Nui Te Po – the “stone archway” in front of the Marae and wait until our Kaikaranga starts to call you on, to proceed.
4. The Kaiwhakautu (generally an older or mature woman) will respond to our Kaikaranga and will lead your group followed by older women, younger women, older men, younger men. If you do not have a Kaiwhakautu, please let us know so we can provide one for you. As you are called on to the Marae by our Kaikaranga, move quietly and slowly up the path towards our Wharenui.

5. Proceed to the wooden forms to the right of the Wharenui. Men sit in the front forms. Women sit behind. This is because in olden times, one never knew whether there was going to be peace or battle and men were always in front to protect. This is Kaitakitanga o nga Tangata – custodial guardianship of the people. The people being those women of child bearing age. The speakers sit in the front row closest to the Wharenui. Sit when Tangata Whenua sits. If the weather is bad, seating will be inside the Wharenui. As a show of respect please remove your shoes at the front door of the Wharenui. Takahanga representatives will be seated on the left side of the Wharenui.

6. IMPORTANT: The “paepae” (front row of seats) is traditionally for men only, generally those who will be speaking, but other men are welcome to join the speakers in the front row. In fact it would be preferable not to leave one or two speakers in the front row on their own. A definite no-no is walking across the Marae atea (the area of ground between tangata whenua and manuhiri during this entire process, and so too within the meeting house when speeches are proceeding. This cannot be stressed enough, it is an insult and in olden times people were killed for doing this.

7. Representatives for Takahanga Marae will speak first, and then sing a waiata (song). Designated representative(s) from your group will then speak followed by a waiata from your group. Note it is usual practice for your group to stand for each of your waiata.

8. Following the waiata for the last speaker, the koha is given to Ngāti Kuri. It is placed on the ground between you and Tangata Whenua. Once placed on the ground walk backwards and be seated. In olden times, you never showed your back because you could have been killed at any time.

Koha is an unconditional gift. It is given as an acknowledgement for the hospitality being received from tangata whenua. There is no expectation by tangata whenua to be given koha, but usually people want to observe this tradition.

Koha can be in any form the manuhiri wish (eg) plants, food, waiata, money etc. If the koha is in the form of money, please remember it is not payment for the use of the Marae – that is done separately. A koha of money is always receipted and this can be given on request. What you contribute to the koha is entirely up to you and can be as small or as large as you like.

9. Once the koha is accepted by Tangata Whenua, we will karanga – call of thank you and then beckon you to proceed to hariru, which is that part of the Pōwhiri process where we line up and “hongi” (press noses/share breath) or kiss with Tangata Whenua – the front row going first.
10. This will be followed by “kai” (food). The act of eating lifts the “tapu” (sacredness) from you and concludes the official welcome.
